Point.

June 19.—J. E. McMullin on Saturday returned to Windber, where he is employed as night watchman.

George Griffith, who has been working in Windber, is home on a short vacation.

On Friday several teams hauled stone for the foundation of the new church which will be erected at this place in the near future.

Billy Blackburn and wife and Charles Miller and wife, of near Fishertown, were guests of the family of R. C. Smith one day last week.

Mrs. Lizzie Claycomb and daughter Carrie, of Openheimer, visited Mrs. Claycomb's father, R. C. Smith, who is ill with pneumonia, yesterday. We are glad to report Mr. Smith improving slowly.

Our community has been having plenty of rain for the last week, while only about a mile and a half from here, and extending to Schellsburg, they had no rain and some complained that the ground was most too dry to plow. The rain on Sunday was for the whole county, or at least seemed to be.

On Wednesday, June 12, there was a surprise quilting party arranged and successfully carried out in honor of Mrs. Maggie McMullin, of Windber, who was a former resident of this community.

Mrs. McMullin came across country on Tuesday last to visit her parents Mr. and Mrs. John Dobson, of near New Paris, and was induced by her mother to come to Point on Wednesday to a quilting. When she arrived at this place she found the quilting was being held in honor of herself, that the handsome friendship quilt was for her. She was very agreeably surprised and greatly appreciated the splendid present from her old neighbors.

The dinner was very good and was partaken of by some forty-five persons. All had a good time. Mrs. McMullin visited around among her old neighbors until yesterday, when she was taken to Fishertown to visit friends there.

Our supervisor was along our roads with the road plow last week and the result of the work in the low places was to make the roads almost impassable for pedestrians, as the roads were lower in the middle than at the sides and were full of water that could not run off. Our people hope that he will do some more efficient work on our roads, which so badly need it.

Harry Blackburn, who has been working at Johnstown, returned home sick last week and will remain until he is better.

Mrs. Boyce, of Schellsburg, stepped on a banana peel one evening last week and fell, breaking both bones in one of her arms. She is an elderly lady and suffers intensely from the injury.

The German Baptists, or Dunkards, will hold their love feast at this place Saturday evening, June 23.

J. C. Imbler and wife are guests of R. C. Smith this morning.

Mrs. Ella Winegardner is the owner of a turkey hen that laid sixty-one eggs, without a rest, since she first commenced and is still at it.

Mrs. Henry Miller has a white peony bush that has 140 flowers in full bloom and quite a number of buds.

HOOKER.

Schellsburg.

June 18.—It is just nine years to-day since "Gideon" landed in Schellsburg with his trunk and both he and the trunk were unloaded at George Beasleigh's, where during the first two weeks of our sojourn here we had our home. How rapidly time has passed by and pushed us on to the opening year of the new century. During these nine years no less than fifty fellow-mortals of this town have gone to their long home.

On the 10th inst. A. B. Egolf left for a three weeks' trip to Alabama and other points in the south.

Sunday evening the M. E. Sunday school held its Children's Day service. The programme consisted of music, recitations, appropriate readings and dialogues. The people programs were well rendered and reflected credit upon the members of the school. The decorations were exquisite and appropriate.

"Gideon" was the recipient of a large ham lately. It came from Mr. and Mrs. C. Bertram, of New Paris.

The early cherries are ripening and are a great temptation for the boys. Beware of the dog!

On Sunday next Rev. D. G. Hetrick will preach his annual sermon at this place in the morning, at New Paris in the afternoon.

Rev. E. H. Jones, Jr., preached in the Lutheran church Sunday morning instead of his father.

C. B. Culp raised his new house on Friday last week.

GRONK.

Surprise Party.

Saturday evening the friends and neighbors of John Foreman assembled at his home near Wolfburg to celebrate his forty-seventh birthday. The guests were armed with baskets of provisions. In a very short time the ladies were all busy getting supper, which was soon ready and—O, what a supper and what a surprised man! The guests returned home at a late hour, wishing Mr. Foreman many more happy birthdays. The following were present: Mr. and Mrs. John E. Foreman, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Mortimore, Mr. and Mrs. John Oyler, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pierson, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Lehman, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Whitestone, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Sellers, Mrs. Sol. The M Waist

For Boys For Girls

The "M" Waist.

The distinctive features of the "M" Waists, and what makes them better than any others, are—First—That all strain is carried from the shoulders, and not from the neck and arm-holes as in other waists. Second—Both the neck and arm-holes are finished with a durable and handsome edging, which will wear much better than the crocheted finish used on other waists. Third—With the "M" system of lapping carries the strain of the stockings from the shoulders. Fourth—The "M" Waists cost no more than inferior ones.

A Summer Waist.

You can easily have a waist that is fashionable and comfortable if you select the material we are showing. There are many beautiful patterns here in summer weights and colors and women of taste speak enthusiastically about them.

Prices quite small.

Corsets.

Summer Corsets, 50c.
